THE NEWS DURING THE PRESIDENTIAL CAMPAIGN.

We desire to have the NEWS largely circulated during the Presidential campaign. The larger our subscription list the more effectually will we be enabled to work, and to this end we trust our friends and patrons will exert themselves somewhat in adding to our present list. The nation will in November declare for Greeley and Brown, and it is essential that North Carolina should place herself squarely on this liberal movement—for such a consummation will we earnestly labor.

In order to place the DAILY and WEEKLY NEWS within the reach of all,
we will send them for a period of four months at the following rates:

We trust our friends in the State will assist us in adding names to our list, and in making a contribution to our part we can be aided to accomplish much good during the present campaign.

LOCAL MATTER.

E. C. WOODSON, City Editor

LOCAL BRIEFS.

The streets of Raleigh are exceedingly dusty at this time.

Madame Remor says that the Skating Rink of this city is to be opened early this fall.

We regret to announce the death of
A. N. McKimmon, Esq., which occurred in this city on Monday night.

A small tenement in Western Ward came near being destroyed by fire Monday night. It was saved by the efforts of the occupants.

Our Local, who has been absent in attendance upon Warren Court for the last ten days, will return to his post tomorrow, and will give his usual interest to this column again.

A special train, we understand, leaves Raleigh this afternoon at 4 o'clock for Ridgeway, in order to give persons an opportunity of attending the Concert there to-night. The fare will be extremely low, and we have no doubt many will attend.

At a meeting of the City Commissioners on Monday it was ordered that Swin street, from Hargett to Davis street, be opened without delay. It was further ordered that all land owners, within the lines of any streets to be opened, be notified five days before the opening of the same.

At a meeting of the Board of City
Commissioners on Monday Messrs
Prairie and Battle were appointed a committee to co-operate with the city improving the parts of the various roads leading into Raleigh, the city to furnish the tools and superintendents if the county will furnish the labor.

HERE AND THERE.

Fashionable young ladies, like letters,
require stamps, or the males reject them.

Railroads have three gauges: A broad gauge, a narrow gauge, and a mortgage.

A shoddy matron told a gentleman
friend that one of her lovely daughters was a "blue net," and the other a "bronze."

Livingstone has been found again—
this time drunk in the market house at Wilmington, N. C., and he had to pay a dollar for it.

There is more truth than poetry in this line from an advertisement:
"Having taken one bottle of my coughing syrup will never cry any more."

This from the Danbury News is worth a smile or two: "Two Squabble Hill men have been devoting themselves to one girl. Between the two she hardly knew how to choose, and fortune grew dizzy skipping from one banner to the other. Friday night No. 1 appeared in a blue and new pair of pants that had the most gorgeous plaid ever seen. The young lady cavorted, and faintly articled: 'Oh, ain't they bully?' This of course solved the difficulty as to the man's choice, and there was evidently nothing more to do but to fix the place of business, and a credit to the banking firm, and to all mechanics who
aided in giving it its present
appearance."

We have before taken occasion to
recommend this Bank and its reliable

THE MASQUERADE BALL AT BEAUFORT.

THE CHARACTERS REPRESENTED.

A PLEASANT TIME.—On Thursday evening last it was our good fortune to attend one of the largest and best regulated Masquerade Balls at this popular resort we have ever attended. Of course we went "inog," our best friends would not have known us. We said some sweet things to some of the "dear creatures," just because our "blush,"
was hid from view, you know we do blush sometimes. We noticed several young gentlemen of prominence from the Oaks City, doing their best in tripping the "light fantastic." Among the most prominent characters on the floor were the

Girl of the Period, Mrs S. S. Smith, R. C.
Rainbow, J. W. J. Newbern.
Flower Girl, Miss L. S. Beaufort.
Night, Miss S. R.

Winter, G. G. Newbern.
Rebecca of Ivanhoe, Miss M. S. Willington.
Aurora, Miss S. T. Beaufort.
Red Riding Hood, Mrs C. G. L. Beaufort.

Bride, Miss S. Beaufort.
Scotch Lassie, Miss J. S. Wilson.
Daughter of the Regiment, Miss P.
Washington.

Goddess of Liberty, Miss E. D. Beau-
fort.
Fashionable Lady, Miss J. H. New-bern.

Maid of Athens, Miss N. H. Newbern.
Queen of Hearts, Miss S. T. Beaufort.
Night, Miss S. Newbern.

Paul Pry, W. B. S. Wilmington.
Jack of Clubs, J. G. Newbern.
"Tobacco Plant," C. B. G. Durham.
Old Heads, E. P. L. M. B. Raleigh.
Young Hearts, W. B. G. H. S. Raleigh.

Ferdinand, Col. S. C. D. Georgia.
Peter, the Hermit, C. O. D. Newbern.
Wild Irishman, E. M. Newbern.
Naval Officer, W. H. F. Newbern.
Clowns, (2) C. G. L. and G. W. C. Beaufort.

Zouave, L. E. N. Beaufort.
U. S. Officer, L. E. N. Beaufort.
Gen. Shoo Fly, W. M. Beaufort.
Prussian Officer, L. H. F. Beaufort.

City Pop, F. L. P. Beaufort.
Country Girl, E. P. M. Beaufort.
Indian, H. N. Beaufort.

Poverty, J. D. Beaufort.
Naval Officer, R. P. Beaufort.
King William, D. S. L. Beaufort.

Imp, W. P. Beaufort.
Lord, H. C. P. Kingston.
Count Bismarck, J. S. C. Durham.

Young George, N. W. T. Virginia.
There were about thirty of the fair sex in costume and masked, but we were unable to get their characters or initials. It was an enjoyable affair, and passed off pleasantly; long may Taylor & Charlotte live, for they did well.

THE MERCANTILE BANK, NORFOLK, VA.—As most of the officers of this new bank are well and favorably known throughout the State, we take the following extract from the Norfolk Virginian, concerning the improvements
recently made in the bank building,
situated on the corner of Main Street
and Rothery's Lane.

The Virginia says:
"Before commencing we will premise
by stating that, in our opinion, the front is the prettiest in the city, an the location of the most desirable which could be secured."

The Mercantile Bank, of this city, was organized under the laws of the State of Virginia, on the 28th of March, 1872, with a cash capital of $55,000, subject to an increase to $200,000, and with the following organization:

President, Major W. J. Baker; Cashier, Gilbert Elliott, Esq.; Directors,
Major W. J. Baker, Hon. John Goode,
Jr., Hon. W. H. Burroughs, Messrs. W.
C. Ayldott and Charles G. Elliott.

The Virginia then gives a minute and very interesting description of the recent improvements made in the office of the Bank:

"The old fashioned front was taken out entirely, and a new, light and airy looking one substituted, with a door in front, and one opening upon the lane.
In this front are large French plate glass windows, reaching from top to bottom, and giving all the light needed.
As soon as the carpenters were through the painting was commenced by Mr. B. A. Richardson and his corps of workmen, and it is no more than justice to them to say that they have done elegant work. The front is of a dark green color, striped with gold, showing a strong contrast to other fronts in the vicinity. But it is on the inside that the beauty developed by the brush is manifested. The counter opposite the front door is a handsome piece of work. The base is painted to resemble dark marble, with white veils,
the upper portion in imitation of black walnut, and the panels of black walnut root. The flat portion, over which the teller receives and disburses
funds is of plate glass, nearly half an inch thick, on the underside of which,
and showing brilliantly through, is a beautiful bouquet of flowers and grasses, painted in artistic style by Mr. Richardson himself. The walls of the room are painted a delicate lilac, with a gold band round the room at the top of the walls. The doors are painted in a dark color contrasting with the green pillars,
and the desks are grained in imitation
of black walnut. The safe, one of Miller's latest patent burglar and fire-proof
concerns, is a marvel of workmanship, standing as it does in the centre of the room under the full blaze of jet gas, and in full view of several windows on the side, as well as of the entire front,
it is not to be imagined for burglars to make an impression, even on the outside shell, without discovery."

The Virginia concludes with remarks on the comforts and conveniences of the office, its ventilation, gas light,
"the office is fitted up with every thing that can conduce to the comfort of a place of business, and is a credit to the banking firm, and to all mechanics who
aided in giving it its present
appearance."

We have before taken occasion to
recommend this Bank and its reliable

officers to the people, and we can say to those who may wish to make deposits
they can find no more safe or trustworthy establishment.

FISHING SEASON AT BEAUFORT—

DRY WEATHER AND ITS EFFECTS.

We learn that the fishing season has commenced in earnest at Beaufort Harbor. On Saturday last the first full run of burelets occurred, and about 500 burelets were hauled in at the various fisheries. At the Parkin's Island Fishery over 500 burelets were captured by the fortunate fishermen. The consequence is the dignity of the fishermen has somewhat increased, and like the denizens of Sampson in the "Big Blue" whitewash season, they are becoming saucy and independent, and will hardly answer a civil question.

The extreme dry weather in the lower part of the State has caused the pine woods in that section to be easily susceptible to fire, and we learn the woods are on fire in several localities.
By retreating visitors we learn that the open lands belonging to the State, in Carteret county, are on fire, and deer and bear in large numbers have been driven from their hiding places therein.
In other localities in the same county,
the woods are on fire, and much destruction to valuable pine forests have resulted. On Monday morning visitors report the usual breezy atmosphere of the harbor had ceased, and a calm prevailed which caused an almost impotent fog of smoke to hang over that vicinity. Several visitors from this city have returned,
with sore eyes, but whether from sore
eyes or other causes is a matter of conjecture. We have our doubts as to their ophthalmic disease.

TOKAY VINEYARD.—This vineyard, in Cumberland county, was recently referred to by the comments of Gen.
J. M. Leach, in his speech at Fayetteville, already published in the NEWS.
For the information of Capt. J. M. Leach, and Woodson, the three celebrated wine-bibbers and grape-growers, according to Leach, we copy the following extract from the Fayetteville Eagle:

Leach says if either of these gentlemen should ever go to Tokay again, they will do so without being invited by the proprietor:

"TOKAY VINEYARD.—The scupper-
non grapes there are now ripening rapidly and there is an immense quantity. The crop of Concord, and the other earlier varieties, is nearly gone.
The usual admission to persons visiting the vineyard is 25 cents, children 15c.
Scuppernons in any quantity will be sold on reasonable terms for a few weeks until the manufacture of wine begins.—Eagle.

If Woodson should decide to make another visit, and should pay the usual admission fee of 25 cents, we will have to call on friend Foote of the Warrenton Gazette, to make calculation in dollars and cents, how much the proprietor would lose by the quantity of grapes consumed.

STATE FAIRS.—We give below the time and places for the holding of State Fairs:

North Carolina Agricultural Society,
Raleigh, October 10th to 18th.
Farmers' and Mechanics' Association of N. C., Goldsboro, October 22nd to 25th.

Roanoke and Tar River Agricultural Society, Weldon, October 29th to November 1st.

Fair of the Carolinas, Charlotte, N.
C., October 26th to 29th.

Cape Fear Agricultural Association,
Wilmington, November 13th and 15th.

State Agricultural Society, Richmond, Va., October 20th to November 2nd.

Border Agricultural Society of Virginia and North Carolina, Danville,
October 22nd to 25th.

Maryland Institute, Baltimore, October 1st to 31st.

NOTICE.—Read the card, in another column, of Messrs. Hawkins & Co., Cotton Factors and General Commission
Merchants, 43 West Lombard street, Baltimore, Md. The senior of this firm is well and favorably known in North Carolina, and we bespeak for them a liberal share of patronage from the people of the State.

CONCERT.—The concert at Ridgeway
takes place this (Wednesday) night.
We were in error in stating that it was to come off last night.

We hear of a number of our citizens who are going to attend. We repeat that the affair will doubtless be a fine musical attainment. We hope to hear of a large crowd in attendance.

There is quite a temperance fever in town at this time, resulting from the late visit of the lecturer, Mr. Hickman.
We heard an inveterate punster last night say that the pass-word this month
was "Hickman," but that next month it would be "Kick-up." We cannot believe that badly of our temperance friends, however.

TYPOGRAPHICAL ERRORS.—We deem an apology due our readers for the numerous typographical errors in yesterday's issue.

ROLE OF THE STRAIGHT-OUTS IN NORTH CAROLINA.—Mr. Britton, of Charlotte, Mr. Gassette, late of Baltimore, Selma and Raleigh, late.

OUR MANAGING EDITOR returned to his over-worked associates on yesterday.
Long may he remain!

RETURNED.—Several of our piscatorily inclined friends who have been sojourning at Beaufort.

VINEYARD.—The finest grapes we have ever seen were the Concord in Judge Fowler's vineyard this season.

F. W. Nash, the boot-black at Premper's Barber Shop, is the best in the city.

TOO THIN.—Major Gassette's Democracy.

By what process can the balloon of Bourbonism be made to rise? Gas it.

Sudden Death of a Well Known

Citizen of Durham.

DURHAM, N. C., September 3.

Robert F. Morris, Esq., of this place, originator of the celebrated brand of Durham Smoking tobacco, died suddenly of apoplexy at this place today.

Mr. Morris was for a number of years
a citizen of Granville county, and is well known throughout this section of the State.

Louisville Convention.

New York, September 3.

A Louisville special says, if O'Connor
will stand the ticket with O'Connor and J. Q. Adams, for Adams and Hancock. Very much civility is manifested to ascertain the contents of O'Connor's
letters which were written Saturday and given to Mr. Apollo Hall delegates to be opened after the Convention came to order. Judge Flanders, of New York, has prepared a platform which he will present to the Convention. It is thoroughly States Rights in its tone.
Considerable difference of opinion and a warm discussion is anticipated over the platform. Edgerton or Fitch are spoken of for Vice President in case Hancock and Adams decline the nomination.

New York Affairs.

New York, Sept. 3.

James Frame bit off the thumb and finger of Edmund Lipkin at a fight
last night. Lipkin threw a glass tumbler at Frame, fracturing his skull. Both were arrested. Frame will die.
When taken to the station, Frame, who was crazy, was found drinking the blood which was copiously flowing from his fractured head.

O'Connor writing to the Louisville Convention, favors a straight ticket, but declines the nomination.

Among the departures for Europe
Saturday, was Col. Wm. D. Mann, of Alabama.

Election Excitement.

Burlington, Vt., Sept. 3.

The excitement about the election absorbs all business. It is believed that the Republicans will carry the State, but by a reduced majority.

A close canvass of some 70 towns shows
Liberal strength of about five thousand,
with few losses from democrats who will vote with Republicans rather than endorse Greeley. Four polls opened at

OTHER PROCEEDING PERTAIN-ING TO ORGANIZATION—

JAMES LYONS, OF VIR-GINIA, PERMANENT
CHAIRMAN.

LOUISVILLE, Sept. 3.

The National Democratic Convention
met to day in the Common Pleas Court Room of the Court House. Previous to and during the assembling of the delegates the second regiment of the National Band of Philadelphia played various airs.

At about one o'clock Col. Duncan called the convention to order.

Rev. Dr. Platt addressed the Throne or Grace in a prayer for concord and peace, and freedom from sectional jealousies throughout the land.

Col. Duncan then spoke as follows:
"Gentlemen of the Convention: It is my duty to call this assemblage to order. Its objects are well known, and require no explanations. We have been derisively characterized as bolters, mercenaries, &c., by the editors and politicians, who have sought an alliance with a faction of the Radical party and who have hitherto characterized our organization. It is not my province to cast reflections upon the motives of these leaders, in whose wisdom and judgment we unfortunately confided.
Their action is invalid and void. It has no binding effect upon other individual members of the party, and it has already been repudiated by hundreds of thousands. No spirit of presumption or forwardness induced the gentlemen who acted with me to appeal to the American Democrats against the flagrant violation of party faith and utter negation of the principles involved in the nomination of Greeley. We did it with higher and nobler motives: We did it to vindicate truth, and to protest against offered reward for political treason to one who had occupied a life-time in the bitterest animadversion of those whose support he now has sought. If our call had been a failure our duty would have been none the less performed, but there was a sympathetic chord in the American heart which responded in enthusiastic and harmonious tones to the musician's touch; there is

How useful it may be in the land of the substance Kings, Lewis and Commonwealth, experience has shown that this policy is inadequate to the maintenance of public order where absolute equality

is recognized. With us it has proven exceedingly mischievous by its enormous multiplication of offices.

Along it effected no permanency of effective restraint upon power.

To the inquiry of how such a restraint can be imposed in our country, politics is responded,

"by the virtue and intelligence of the people," but this is a delusive hope.

Laborious attention, constant watchful-ness and combined action are necessary to practical results, and are unattainable. If our people were placed upon sterile soil, their perpetual hand-to-hand conflict for subsistence with "nig," and nature might qualify them for resistance to the official plunder. Their poverty would diminish their temptation and in-corrupt their defence, but in a great and prospective country, such popular guardianship can't be had, and the only efficient misrule is in totally prohibiting those powers which cannot be effectually regulated by law. This fact was asserted in the public councils which gave birth to our Constitution, but its recognition was its prevention by want of prior human experience under just such systems of government. History furnished no precise parallel, and consequently that patriotism which saw and approached the right was unable to prove its statements or maintain its arguments.

IRREVERENCE.

"THERE MAY BE SOME DEMOCRATS PRESENT WHO ARE REPENTANT AND LIKE TO PREACH TO SINNERS. YOU HAVE HEARD OF THE FELLOW WHO SAID, 'I CAME NOT TO CALL THE RIGHTEOUS, BUT SINNERS, TO REPENTANCE.'"—Delano, Grant's Secretary of Interior, in his speech at Raleigh.

IN THIS FAITH, AND WITH THE DISTINCT UNDERSTANDING THAT IF ELECTED, I SHALL BE THE PRESIDENT, NOT OF A PARTY, BUT OF THE WHOLE PEOPLE, I ACCEPT YOUR NOMINATION IN THE CONFIDENT TRUST THAT THE MASSES OF OUR COUNTRYMEN, NORTH AND SOUTH, ARE READY TO CLASP HANDS ACROSS THE BLOODY CHASM, WHICH HAS TOO LONG DIVIDED THEM, FORGETTING THAT THEY HAVE BEEN ENEMIES, IN THE JOYFUL CONSCIOUSNESS THAT THEY ARE, AND MUST REMAIN, BROTHERS.

"We want a President without a party; a President without a price; and a Secretary of the Interior, without a price."—B. Gratz Brown.

A REQUEST.

I would be glad to get the full and Post Office address of every elector to the Legislature, so that I may publish a correct list for the information of the public. The first copy published by us was very inaccurate, although we notice it continues to be copied by our contemporaries.

Will not some friend in each County send us the desired information concerning his own member or members?

STEPHENS' IDIOSYNCRASIES.

Sometime last Spring, we quoted from the Atlanta Sun, Alexander H. Stephens' paper, to show that Mr. Stephens heartily approved of the resolutions adopted at the Liberal Republican Convention in Missouri, when delegates were appointed to Cincinnati.

Gov. B. Gratz Brown's speech was also made the basis of an editorial in the Sun, and the tone and temper of the speech were highly commended.

Mr. Stephens expressed his earnest desire to unite with all persons in the Presidential struggle who would stand upon the Missouri platform, no matter what had been their political antecedents. He said the battle was constitutionalism against centralization, and it behooved every patriot to unite with the friends of the Constitution in order to defeat the Radical party, whose principles tended to a centralized despotism.

Mr. Greeley was nominated at Cincinnati upon the identical principles set forth by the Missouri Republicans. He was afterwards renominated at Baltimore by the Democratic party—the party to which Mr. Stephens claims to belong; and yet, Mr. Stephens, in direct opposition to the position he assumed last Spring, now refuses to support the nominee of his own party—when that nominee stands on the very platform for which Mr. Stephens expressed so much admiration.

The Atlanta Sun was as thoroughly committed, if we understand its meaning, as any paper in the South, to the support of the Liberal Republican candidate, provided he was endorsed by our nation. That paper is now recommitting itself in favor of the Straight ticket.

Mr. Stephens and Mr. Greeley, and other leaders in the "Emancipation" party, are like the people of the South, who are now recommitting themselves to the Straight ticket.

DEFYING THE LAW.

Radicalism in North Carolina is another name for lawlessness. Radicalism is genuine Ku-Kluxism. Following the example set by their commander-in-chief, Gov. Caldwell, the Radical party, as such, has no respect for the Constitution or the laws of the land.

The proposition of the Radical Era to resist, "at the point of the bayonet," the determination of the Democratic Legislature to oust Caldwell, if in their opinion, it be proved that he is not legally elected Governor, is the outcropping of that spirit of reckless disregard of the acts of the law-making power of the State which Caldwell has so often exhibited during his official career.

The Radical party is the party of disorder and violence. It spurns all legal restraints. When the law comes in conflict with its notions of propriety, policy or expediency, it forthwith stamps out the law and bids it defiance.

The Democratic Conservative party, in its Conventions and public meetings, has time and again demanded that lawlessness and disorders of every kind, be put down, and deprecated the outrages that have been committed in different sections of North Carolina, whether by Loyal Leagues or the Ku Klux.

Our party has, in the most authoritative modes, set its face, like a flint, against every species of violation of the law; and if individual acts of crime have been committed by any of its members, it has frequently taken occasion to condemn and denounce such conduct.

We might sustain our position by copious extracts from the proceedings of our Conventions and the public addresses of our Committees, but we deem it a useless consumption of space, as such documents are matters of public record, and are doubtless well known to every intelligent reader.

The Carolina Era, in invoking brute force to prop Caldwell in his position as Governor of the State, shows the desperation and violent spirit of the Radical leaders. For that paper, as the party organ, would not dare to utter such revolutionary sentiments, if it was not upheld and sustained by the voice of the prominent members of its own party.

Relying upon the righteousness of a just cause and the rectitude of our motives, we can afford to laugh to scorn the puny threats of the mouthpiece of Radicalism.

We notice these threats at all, because they are fair illustrations of the demoralizing tendencies of the age.

We refer to the Era's argument, because it is the ultima ratio regum—the last appeal which tyrants make against reason, justice and law.

Radicalism, for base party purposes, exaggerates the outrages committed in this State in order to justify the Administration in resorting to harsh measures to intimidate and oppress the people, and to create the impression at the North that the spirit of rebellion is still alive in the South.

We tell the Era and its Radical friends that theirs is the only revolutionary party—the party of violence and disorder. They are the outlaws who advise resistance to the legal authorities. They are the only real Ku Klux in North Carolina.

IS LIBERALISM GAINING GROUND?

Soon after the Baltimore Convention adjourned, the friends of Greeley counted upon his election as a certainty. The enthusiasm of that great, momentous event being over, a general calm settled over the political sea, which the Administrationists construed into apathy in our ranks and they began to crow very lustily over the imaginary weakness of our candidate.

The tide is beginning to rise again—gradually and slowly, but surely Greeley stock is advancing, and the prospect is brightening every where.

We are daily receiving accessions to our ranks from the former adherents of Grant, and a bold and active canvass is close upon us.

The Louisville bubble will burst to-day, and the Grant-Duncan side show will exhibit a "meagerly account of empty benches."

We see nothing before us to discourage the friends of reform and good government.

Close up the ranks, friends! Let us do our part in the great struggle against corruption and despotism.

We can win a glorious fight in this State on the fifth of November, and wipe out the meagre majority claimed for Caldwell.

Liberalism is gaining ground. Let North Carolina do her full duty, and share in the common victory that will be achieved by the allied forces against Radicalism.

MORE STRAWS.

We have not heard of a single straight-out meeting held in this State, to appoint delegates to the Louisville Convention, which met yesterday.

The Asheville Citizen informs us that two gentlemen who went from that place as self-appointed delegates, voted the Radical ticket in August.

The individual who left Raleigh on last Saturday, on the same mission, voted like the two gentlemen mentioned by the Citizen—to wit, for Caldwell and the balance of the Radical State ticket.

These straws show the way the wind is blowing at Louisville.

MORE OF THE BEEF-EATERS IN NORTH CAROLINA.

We quoted in these columns a few days since, an article from the New York World, showing how much it costs to collect Internal Revenue Tax in North Carolina. We copy below a similar article, showing how "Grants Beef-Eaters" manage our custom houses:

"England had her rotten boroughs. We have our rotten custom-houses. But there is this difference between England and ourselves, that when the rotten-borough system did prevail there was no Tory in the land so brazen as to maintain that the party upholding it were economical or great reformers, while with us the very upholders of the rotten custom-houses are travelling all over the United States, spouting on every stump, vaunting in every newspaper of their party, the great reforms they have inaugurated and the economy they practice. Here is an example of their reform.

Albemarle, in North Carolina is a port of entry—a very modest port. The total foreign commerce of Albemarle during the calendar year ending December 31, 1871, was:

Imports	$336,000
Exports	$111,000

To superintend this foreign trade of Albemarle, amounting in the aggregate to $336,000, it required the following officials:

Officials	Salary, actual cost for 1871.
1 collector	$1,200 00
1 deputy collector and clerk	1,000 00
1 deputy collector	1,000 00
1 deputy collector	1,000 00
2 boat lands	480 00
1 coast inspector	365 00
Total	$5,791 33

The figures are official, and the above expenditure was actually incurred during 1871 to take care of a total commerce amounting to $336,000. Now, we simply ask who should be more ashamed—a whole people for being subjected to such a rotten swindle, or an Administration that boasts of reform and economy allowing it to go on for the three years that they are in power?"

GEN. CLINGMAN ON THE ELECTION FRAUDS.

Gen. Clingman has written a private letter concerning the election frauds, to a gentleman in New York, which has found its way into the columns of the New York World.

This letter details with great minuteness and clearness the manner in which the election was carried for Caldwell on the first of August. Gen. Clingman says:

"Caldwell owes his success to many thousand fraudulent votes. The Administration of Grant has an army of officers extending over the whole State. They nominally are revenue officers and deputy marshals, but their chief business has been to manage the election. There are numbers of them in counties where there is not a single distillery, a single acre of tobacco, and in which not a single Ku Klux is even suspected to be engaged. They seem generally to have been liberally supplied with money. I think they were also required to make regular reports of their operations, and the prospects, &c. In the large negro counties their efforts seem to have chiefly been directed to the importation of voters and to the procurement of double voting by negroes. This last operation could be carried on more extensively than the first. Many negroes have two names; they ramble about, and could easily be induced to register in two or more townships, either by the same or by different names, and could thus readily vote in one township in the morning, and another in the evening. The unusually large apparent vote in certain counties, where an excess of votes over the whole vote was 350 less than the voting population as shown by the census, while the heavy negro county of Halifax shows 850 votes in excess of its voting population. A like result occurred in many of the other large negro counties.

While in most of the counties of the State the deficiency of votes is more than 15 per cent, and in several of them nearly one-third below the whole voting population, we have the extraordinary spectacle presented in some counties, where the population is numerous, of an excess of votes over voters. This was effected by importation of voters to come extra, and especially by repeating votes. In the counties where the white population predominates the officers chiefly operated by agreeing those guilty of violating the revenue laws should not be prosecuted or molested in any way and by granting the privilege to others to distill fruit and grain, &c., on condition of voting the Republican ticket. Carrow, the Marshal, also had about 3,000 whites under arrest as Ku Klux prisoners, and many of these men assert that they have assurance that they will be released if they vote the Radical ticket. In Rutherford county there are said to be 500 under arrest, and when there I was shown receipts of Mr. Justice, the Assistant District Attorney, for money paid him by some of these parties who had not been tried, and who assured me that they had promises from him to be discharged without trial.

This man, ill named Justice, in the election for this District, and on the day when he was appointed such by his party, I heard him declare in a public speech upon returning his thanks that they (meaning himself and his associates) had already run out of this Congressional District 1,000 voters charged with being Ku Klux; that they intended to imprison 700 more, and that he boasted that they would thus carry the election was greatly applauded by the convention which nominated him, composed as it was almost exclusively of Federal officers. Many men have been arrested in this section merely because they had in the year 1868 been members of a Seymour and Blair club.

We shall, feel confident, carry the State easily for Greeley in November. In the first place, this retaining our late strength, we shall have many accessions from Republicans who are with us on the Presidential issue; secondly, our whole effort will be concentrated on a single election; and thirdly, the tactics of our opponents are now generally understood, and their efforts will more easily be defeated.

THE HENDERSON FAIR.

The Fairs held at Henderson since the war, have been highly creditable to the spirit of enterprise and agricultural zeal of the Counties of Granville, Warren and Franklin.

While the exhibitions have not been everything that the friends of the Fair could have desired, yet the difficulties under which the officers labored, the depressed condition of the country, the apathy prevailing among some of the farmers, whose duty it was to encourage and foster the enterprise, these and various other causes have operated as a serious drawback upon the operations of the Society.

Notwithstanding all this, the Fairs have invariably been very creditable indeed, and we are informed that unusual preparations are now being made for a successful exhibition this year.

It comes off the first, we believe, in the State, to wit, on the 8th, 9th, 10th and 11th October.

HARPER'S WEEKLY.

We derive the extract below, taken from the last Charlotte Democrat. It is strange that any Southern man will subscribe for Harper's Weekly. Notwithstanding the ability with which it is published, and the genius displayed in its pictorial designs, its misrepresentations and gross slanders of the South should make it odious in the eyes of our people.

"We regret to see that some Conservative papers publish favorable notices of Harper's Weekly, a paper that abuses and vilifies the people of the South on every occasion possible. The puffing advertisement of the dirty concern is actually put among reading matter in some of the papers alluded to. Harper's Weekly ought not to be admitted into any decent Southern man's house."

GEN. GORDON.

Gen. J. B. Gordon, of Georgia, has entered actively into the Presidential campaign, and is making very eloquent and effective speeches for Greeley and Brown.

Gen. Gordon is one of the ablest speakers and most popular leaders in Georgia, and his influence will have great weight in the campaign.

John G. Thompson, a prominent politician of Columbus, Ohio, picked up several straws floating about, on which he formed opinions, and here they are: "Is there any danger of New Jersey going against Greeley?" "None in the world." "How about Connecticut and New Hampshire?" "Safe for Greeley by large majorities." "How will Maine go on the 9th of September?" "I think for the Republican ticket, but by a reduced majority." "What about Pennsylvania?" "Cameron is making desperate efforts to carry it by fraud and his money, but he will not win. Pennsylvania will elect Hancock, and for Greeley in November." "Will Grant make any headway in the South?" "None whatever. He may possibly carry South Carolina and Louisiana." "Won't he carry Mississippi?" "Good judges say not."

In a letter from Nashua, N. H., dated the 30th ult., the secretary of the Young Men's Greeley Club says: "Everything in this State promises well for Greeley and Brown in November. I think the Granite State is good for 2,500 majority for Greeley."

Robert J. Alcorn, chairman of the Mississippi Liberal Republican Committee, is addressing the colored people, "many of whom have stood by him in perilous times in 1867, 1868, 1869, and 1871," with considerable success. The Mississippi negroes are beginning to think.

The New York Herald does not give entire evidence to the late report from Topeka, Kansas, announcing a terrible massacre in Colorado Territory by the Apachoe Indians. The dispatch stated that a government train was captured and some fifteen men killed.

DIED.

McKIMMON—In this city on Monday night last, in the thirty-third year of his age, ARTHUR N. McKimmon. Kind-hearted, to a fault, he was left no enemy among those with whom his life has been spent. The friends of the family and of the deceased respectfully invited to attend the funeral, which will take place at the Christ Church this (Wednesday) morning, at 9 o'clock.

A SAD FALLING OUT.—It is indeed a sad falling out when, after years of the closest intimacy, the heart is suddenly separated. Fortunately the lamentable separation may be easily prevented and the twain more closely united than ever before, by the use of LYON'S KATHALION, the most potent invigorant of the hair and promoter of its growth and its only remedy to modern pharmacy. It completely obviates the dry and parched condition of the roots of the hair, and by its action, its coming out, by supplying the precise degree of moisture requisite to its preservation in a healthy condition. It is the only dissolvent and evaporant of dandruff and other impurities of the scalp, whose presence is injurious to the hair. As a beautifier of the head the Kathalion has no equal. It improves its quality immediately, imparting a lustrous appearance and a healthy texture which are exceedingly attractive.

SUICIDE COMMITTED.

As the result of an inactive state of liver and stomach, producing headache, obtuse intellect, dullness, despondency, nervousness and finally insanity, is no uncommon occurrence. All these disagreeable symptoms may be easily removed by the use of Dr. Pierce's Golden Medical Discovery. It revitalizes and builds the whole system. A little box of Chronic Diseases sent free. Address R. V. Pierce, M. D., Buffalo, N. Y. Golden Medical Discovery sold by all druggists.

DR. SAGE'S CATARRH REMEDY.—$500 reward for an incurable case. Sold by Druggists at 50 cents.

LASTING LOVELINESS.—Twenty years ago, when paint, pearl powder and enamel, were raising the complexion and destroying the health of women of fashion, HAZARD'S MAGNOLIA BALM was brought out as a pure botanical cosmetic, guaranteed to restore bloom and beauty to the skin. From that time to the present it has been continually rising in public estimation as an artificial, made-up complexion. It is a delicate, rosy tinge, which is not artificial, but a natural, healthy complexion. It is a delicate, rosy tinge, which is not artificial, but a natural, healthy complexion. It is a delicate, rosy tinge, which is not artificial, but a natural, healthy complexion.

A WHOLE PEOPLE'S OPINION.—When a nation of forty millions accepts and endorses as a standard Restorative an article that it has had the fullest opportunities of testing during a period of twelve years, who can be so absurdly incredulous as to doubt the excellence of the preparation? HAZARD'S BLOOD PURIFIER has passed the ordeal and is now the most popular proprietary medicine on this continent. It would be difficult to find an article of either sex between the Atlantic and the Pacific or between the northeast corner of Maine and the Gulf of Mexico, who does not know, either from personal experience or observation, that this renowned vegetable remedy is the purest, tonic and health-giving medicine at present before the world. As a preventive of and cure for diseases arising from malaria, and as a specific for dyspepsia, rheumatism and all nervous and bilious affections, it is admitted by the physician pronounced the Favorite Household Tonic and Alternative of the Western Hemisphere.

ASTHMA.—Jonas Whitcomb's remedy. Prepared from a genuine recipe obtained by the late Jonas Whitcomb, in Europe. It alleviated this disorder in his case when he was an invalid, and he has since cured many others. For sale by all druggists.

SUBSTITUTES IN THE DENTAL RANKS are not desirable; therefore, keep the natural teeth and pure with HAZARD'S VEGETABLE ELIXIR, Sododont. Do this, and they will last as long as the breath lasts, and be as healthy as ever.

TO OWNERS OF HORSES AND CATTLE.—Tobias Derby Condition Powders are warranted superior to any others, or no pay, for the cure of Distemper, Coughs, Colds, Hoarseness, Loss of Milk, Black Tongue, Hot Feet, and all other ailments. Price 25 cents. Depot, 10 Park Place, New York.

PHYSIOLOGISTS SAY THAT OUR BODIES are renewed once in seven years, and the elements of vitality, the strength and health of the system decline. Of all blood depurants, Dr. Walker's Vinegar Bitters is the best tonic and most infallible. It cures disease, arising from depravation of the blood, which it will not speedily cure.

FOR DYSPEPSIA, indigestion, depression of spirits and general debility, their various forms; also, as a preventive against Fever and Ague, and other intermittent fevers, the Ferri-Pepsin-Bitters of Dr. Cassida, made by Cassell, Hazard & Co., New York, and sold by all druggists, is the best tonic and most infallible for restoring recovering from fever or other sickness. It has no equal.

CARBOLIC SALVE, recommended by Physicians, as the greatest relief in all cases of Burns, Scalds, Cuts, Bruises, etc. Price 25 cents per box. John H. Henry, sole Proprietor, 3 College Place, New York.

CHRISTADORO'S HAIR DYE stands unrivaled in the world. No lady or gentleman can afford to neglect the hair. It is the most perfect, reliable and effective hair dye in the world. Manufactured by 8 Maiden Lane, New York.

THURSTON'S IVORY PEARL TOOTH POWDER.—The best article known for cleaning and preserving the teeth and gums. Sold by all druggists. Price 25 cents per box. F. C. Wells & Co., New York.

RISLEY'S BUCHU is a reliable Diuretic and Tonic for all derangements of the urinary and renal organs. The genuine, as formerly sold by Dr. J. H. Risley, of New York, and their branches, is now prepared by F. C. Wells, the originator and Proprietor; and the trade supplies by his successors, Morgan & Risley, New York.

SVANTIA, or opium purified, the most perfect antidote in the market, made by process of Dr. J. M. Bigelow, Detroit Medical College. It is always uniform in strength, which is rarely the case in other preparations of Opium.

PRATT'S ANTRAL OIL, has a world-wide reputation as the surest and best illuminating oil. Over two million gallons have been sold for the past two years, from which no accidents of any description have occurred. Sent for circular. Oil House of Charles Pratt, established 1776, New York.

WE HAVE FREQUENTLY HEARD mothers say they would not be without Mrs. Winslow's SWEET SYRUP, from the birth of the child until it has finished weaning, and during the teething stage, under any consideration whatever.

THE SECRET OF BEAUTY.—What is it? No longer asked, for the world of fashion and all the ladies know that it is produced by using a delightful and harmless toilet preparation known as G. W. LEON'S "Secret of Youth." Its beautifying effects are true and permanent. Depot, 5 Gold Street, New York.

SPECIAL NOTICES.

A PERILOUS SEASON.—Glorious and delightful as the Summer weather is, its tropical heat is a severe trial to the vital powers. Even the strongest are sometimes prostrated by its effect. The common phrase applied to this condition of the body is "general debility." Now, general debility arises from, and includes a variety of ailments. The liver is more or less affected, the bowels are either constipated or too much relaxed, the stomach half full and the work of digestion depressed. This is what is called general debility. It is a general debility, and requires a remedy that will regulate them all. Hostetter's Stomach Bitters is especially adapted to this purpose. Its general operation is not confined to a single organ. If the liver is affected, it restores its tone; if the stomach is weak, it regenerates it; if the nerves are tremulous and weak, it braces and reinvigorates them. If the mind, which ever sympathizes with the body, is gloomy and despondent, it relieves the difficulty, and soon brings the whole mechanism of the body into harmony with the laws of health.

There is no civilized nation in the Western Hemisphere where Bitters is so generally known and appreciated. Throughout the world it is considered, both by the people and the profession, the standard specific. While it is a medicine for all seasons and climates, it is especially suited to the complaints generated by the weather, being the purest and best vegetable stimulant in the world.

Beware of the Bitters made of acid and dangerous materials, which use unscrupulous parties are endeavoring to foist upon the people. Their name is legion, and the public has no guarantee that they are not poisonous. Adhere to the true remedy, Hostetter's Bitters, sold only in glass, and never in kegs and barrels.

once be exacted from the tax payer, a powerful class would be called in the duty of guarding against official extravagance, Government mortgages upon labor, the most safe and desirable of investments, would cease, and in their place frightened capitalists could contemplate only the approaching tax gatherers; in self defence they would then perform public duty; hissing and shouting, legislative corruption would be effectively opposed; under their keen scrutiny no man whose record was tainted could pass the ordeal of election long. Patient study has convinced me that on the practicability of establishing precisely this surveillance rests the last hope of our republic. Paternal government is not necessarily mischievous in a monarchy, but in a republic, based upon universal suffrage, it cannot fail to foster innumerable evils; it is in fact the sum of all villainies. A government which devotes some of its powers to putting money in men's pockets must employ others in extortion; the policy invites a continuous care of rapine and favoritism.

My deep aversion to all these things has induced me to encourage the movement which you represent, and doubtless my name will be presented for your consideration for a nomination. In that event, I beg leave respectfully to withdraw it. The strength and emphases which have marked the language employed by some gentlemen in addressing me on other subjects must be my excuse for saying what follows: Success should of course be the object. In the present condition of affairs other leadership will afford a better prospect of attaining it. A choice can be made from many equally reliable as reformers, probably more capable of public office, and yet less likely to combine formidable elements of opposition. I could not consent to subscribe to a platform containing either a profession of faith or a recantation of errors, and a promise of amendments to the existing practice requires this, and that practice may not be abruptly set aside. A love of that absolute independence which can hardly be maintained in public life, a desire to promote your success instead of impeding it, and a belief that I can best perform the individual citizen's quota of public service, have created in my mind an utter resolve to remain in private station.

Yours truly,
CHARLES O'CONNOR.

[We publish Mr. O'Connor's letter literally as received. We confess we do not understand it at all, and if the report be correct, we must say it is a "muddy production."—EDITOR.]

O'Connor's letter was referred to the Committee on Platform.

A Committee on Credentials, composed of one from each State, was announced, 34 States responding. Bayard, of N. J., was allowed to represent California. A confusion prevailed at this juncture which the Chair was unable to check. During the call of States, Vallandigham, of Ky., moved that the Convention adjourn to the 20th of November. Cries of "put him out!" Vallandigham's friends claim that his motion was a practical joke; subsequently a friend apologized for him and he was excused.

A Committee on Permanent Organization was appointed, one from each State. The Committee on Credentials reported informally that there was entire harmony in the body. There was not a single contest for a seat.

The Committee on Permanent Organization reported for President, James Lyons, of Richmond, Va., and one Vice-President from each State represented. On motion of Bayard, Blanton Duncan was made first Vice-President.

Mr. Lyons, on taking his seat, ridiculed the Greeley party as the Dolly Varden party.

A motion to add a labor delegate from New York to the Committee on Resolutions created great confusion. The Chair refused to entertain any motion, and, upon motion, the Convention adjourned until 9 o'clock to-morrow morning.

Telegraphic Summary.
The stables and stone barn of James Bayard, at Boston, were burned yesterday, with the loss of one horse and one man.

The city of Selma, Alabama, has subscribed $10,000 for a draw-bridge over the Alabama river.

A Selma (Ala.) dispatch says that the caterpillars have stripped Alabama of cotton as bare as a frost. Such multitudes caused much alarm at first, but the farmers have become more hopeful, as the boll is not seriously damaged. The crop will yield about ten per cent. less than last year.

A Syracuse (N. Y.) dispatch says that there is the largest crowd in the city that was ever present before the Convention assembled. Augustus Schell is growing in strength.

The Partial Burning of the Canterbury Cathedral.
LONDON, Sept. 3.
Later dispatches from Canterbury report that the fire in the Cathedral caused immense excitement. At one time it was thought the magnificent building would be entirely destroyed, but by tremendous efforts and a favorable wind, the fire was checked and subsequently subdued. Almost everything was removed from the building. The greater portion of the roof was destroyed. The shrine of Thomas A. Becket was unharmed. The mosaic pavement was covered with melted lead from the roof, and the altar was filled with water.

For the past three hundred years it has been the habit to hold religious services in the Cathedral daily. This custom was not broken by the fire, services were held after the suppression of the flames.
